

The natural willingness to donate lies on a precious mindset.

Donating manifests in the perception of other's needs and the commitment to gratitude.

The mindset of donation is eligible to sustainably create global welfare.

IDONATE

WE HELP YOU,
TO HELP OTHERS

iDonate is a non-profit initiative dedicated to promote the mindset of donating. Donations are not restricted to a financial support. A donation is any kind of voluntary help, without re-compensation.

GET INVOLVED IN OUR CHARITY WORK

iDonate offers a range of options for volunteering and a blog for sharing experience and knowledge, all available on www.idonate.info.

There are three ways to get involved in our charity work.

iDonate provides a free mobile App which supports the brokerage of donations. The App enables a real worldwide brokerage of donations, since it translates your donation requests or offers to worldwide users in their languages.

I want to donate but I am not sure to whom. Can the iDonate App help me?

Yes, you can look-up requests published in the iDonate App or create your own donation offer in the App and publish it.

I am interested in a fundraising. Can the iDonate App help me?

With iDonate you can create and publish fundraising requests. You can even search and apply for suitable donation offers.

How to get the iDonate App?

Our App is available on Google Play Store. Search for iDonate.info!

AS A SMALL CHARITY

Local charity work is very important for seeking global welfare. Promoting and supporting them is one of the main targets of iDonate. Are you personally engaged in charity? Do you operate a small charity organization to deliver local help? We invite you to regularly publish your requests for donations in the iDonate App to reach more helpers and donors for your charity work.

Create your own profile and use it to publish requests.

We use our channels to promote your charity.

AS VOLUNTEER FOR IDONATE

iDonate volunteers promote our initiative and are part of our extended team. Are you interested in conceiving, supporting and promoting charity work? We welcome you to join our extended team. We share with you our knowledge and offer the possibility to use our technical tools, including the iDonate App, to support you in realizing your ideas. We do this voluntarily.

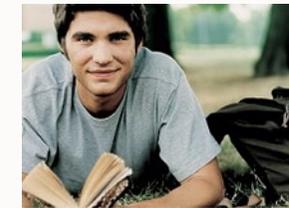

We share with you our knowledge.

We support you in realizing your ideas.

BY WRITING FOR CHARITY

Exchanging and promoting knowledge and experience is crucial for a solid and continuous development of activities to create global welfare. Are you the „strategic“, who learns, analyses, assesses, criticizes and provides new impulses? Are you interested in writing? Use the iDonate blog to publish your ideas and promote the mindset of donating.

Use the iDonate blog to publish your opinion.

Promote the mindset of donating with your ideas.
